PRESS RELEASE

June 14, 2005

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 14 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Special Counsel(R), the legal workforce solutions unit of MPS Group, Inc. , today announced that it has been selected by Tyco International Ltd. to be a preferred legal workforce partner. Specifically, Special Counsel will provide temporary paralegals, law clerks and attorneys, including legal nurse consultants and Concise(R) deposition summary services, to Tyco's law department.

"We are creating a new legal business model as part of a theme we call 'One Tyco,' with primary law firms and service providers selected by core competency in support of all business segments," said Jim Michalowicz, Litigation Program Manager. "Using Six Sigma methodology, we are choosing strategic partners such as Special Counsel that can respond to the 'voice of the customer' and deliver measurable results to One Tyco."

"Our ability to provide direct, local staffing support throughout the United States, as well as our broad range of legal support services, are important to our clients, particularly those as diversified as Tyco International," said John Marshall, president of Special Counsel. "We look forward to partnering with Tyco in support of its programs to manage expenses through the expanded use of contingent legal specialists."

I had heard negative about them over the years, but recently I have heard very positive, in fact accolades about their high-quality work and prompt payment.
