Subject: a china shop

"like a china shop"? Is that correct?

MR. THEODORE: Your Honor, it might facilitate things, if Attorney Meade has specific portions he objects to, and he and I may be able to work something out to facilitate this, rather than object to all of this. I think there's an obligation to --

THE COURT: I'll tell you what we'll do. the Court is like a china shop. I'll try not to be, if you all try not to be. it's like a china shop. but what you do is say what you propose to do, and what lines you intend to read. for example, I don't know if you intend to read like, that she's a target, a federal target. you wouldn't want to read that, would you? certainly not. this is a china shop. don't be one of those mirrored fish bowls.

Thanks, Chandra

Sometimes, education can be wasted on some individuals....

Good luck!
